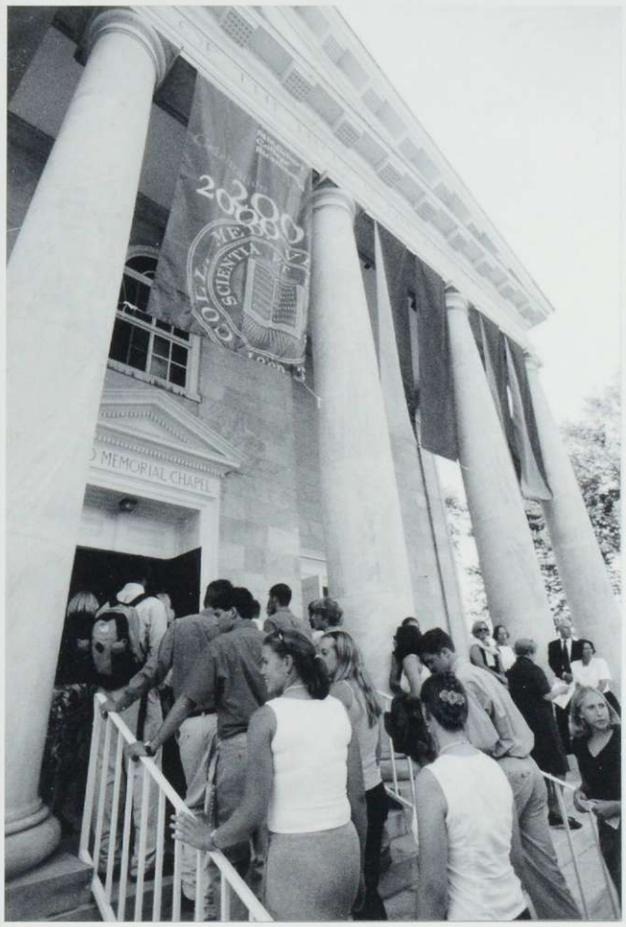
100 DAYS

Bicentennial Celebration

During the ceremony held at Middlebury College on May 19, 2000, for the first day of issue of the most recent stamped postcard in the US Postal Service's Historic Preservation Series, retired Vermont governor and Middlebury alumnus Robert T. Stafford joined College President John McCardell, College trustees, and representatives of the US Post Office to unveil the watercolor version of the College's Old Stone Row used for the stamp on the postcard.



Winter Carnival

"Carnival 2001: A Winter Odyssey" was a great success, due to the efforts of Administrative Head Kristen Sylva '01, Social Chairs Lisa Bennett '02 and Kate Griffiths '01, Sports Chair Alex Sperling '01, and the rest of the Winter Carnival Sports and Social Boards. All of this year's social events were focused around the theme of winter in different geographical locations, culminating in "Venetian Carnivale," a masquerade ball, where Peter Day '01 and Susan Batchelder '01 reigned as King and Queen. One of the highlights of the carnival was a tribute performance during the Ice Show, "A Midd-Winter's Night," where college skaters performed a lyrical number to vocals by Marlene Emerick '03 in honor of the memory of Maika Prewitt '03.

The Bicentennial Plays

Theatre's Bicentennial year was conceived as an homage to the richness and variety of theatrical literature from the Elizabethan era to the late 20th century. Most especially, this season foregrounded numerous Middlebury artists of the past decade. The work in our theatres in these twelve months was a visible articulation of the creative energy sown and nurtured in this small corner of Vermont, which is illuminating stages and opening minds across the country. The artistic intermingling of present and future Theatre alumni in these half-dozen productions represents in microcosm Middlebury College's gift to the art of theatre in America, a gift which springs from and is deeply embedded in the finest liberal "arts" tradition.

The Mischords sing and arrange poular music for women's voices, and can be heard both on campus and off. This year we sang with the UVM Hullabahoos and the Vassar Accidentals, performed at local community events, and took a roadtrip to New York City. Special tribute to (!) in 4-part harmony. When in doubt, Tori will sing it!

The Mischords 2001 album release, Chaos of Our Own Design, was nominated for Best Female Collegiate Album of the Year by the Contemporary A Capella Society of America. The Album was dedicated in loving memory to Christine Guilmet '01.

This year the Middlebury Mountain Club celebrated its 70th anniversary with a warm weather Lake Dunmore extravaganza. Trademark MMC energy and creativity ensured that this year was a memorable one with mountains climbed, friendships made, and a good time had by all. With trips going out almost every weekend of the year, the MMC continued to offer the best way to forget the harsh rigors of college life and escape into the outdoor paradise that surrounds our campus on all sides. Happy Birthday MMC - We'll miss you!

Middlebury College's premier tap dancing troupe "On Tap" said goodbye to four fabulous seniors at this year's spring show "Pop Stars." Co-Director Kate Griffiths, Lindsay Frost, Tiffany Brinkmann, and Kristen Sylva showed their affinity for the group by inviting all of the girls onto the stage during their performance of "Girls Just Wanna Have Fun." "On Tap" has been entertaining Middlebury College students for the past seven years, performing at events such as the ISO Fashion Show, Riddim, and Preview Weekends in addition to their spring show.

The Middlebury College football team won a share of the NESCAC Football Championship with Amherst and Colby by defeating Tufts 27-0 in their season finale in Middlebury. The Panthers ended the season with a 7-1 record for the first time since '92. They did not allow a touchdown in their final 26 quarters, dating back to the second quarter at Colby in September. They allowed only 6.0 points per game, which ranked them in the top three nationally, and had four shutouts in a season for the first time since '36.

Running back Bryan Sanchez ended his career holding school records for most carries in a season (234 in '00), in a career (602 in '00), most yards rushing in a season (1,183), in a career (2,929). He also won the NESCAC rushing title for the second straight year, averaging 147.9 yards per game. Linebacker Andy Steele (Boise, Idaho) became the first Panther to earn All-American status (6th overall) since nose tackle Jon Good achieved Kodak All-American honors in 1983. Steele was also named the NESCAC Defensive Player of the Year for the second consecutive season. The senior captain led the team in tackles for the past three seasons. He ended his career with a school-record 304 tackles.

An overtime goal by Middlebury senior tri-captain Betsy Wheeler finished of a perfect season for the women's lacrosse team as the Panthers defeated Amherst for the NCAA title. The win gives the Panthers their third national championship in the last five years. They finished their season undefeated, 17-0.

The men's lacrosse team won their second straight NCAA championship with a 15-10 win over Gettysburg. All-Americans Holt Hopkins, Matt Dunn, David Seeley and Jamie Haire helped lead the Panther's to a 17-1 record this season. Hopkins is fourth on Middlebury's all time scoring list, and earned MVP honors in the championship game.

"And for all the rest of your days and nights I hope you can remember that you never have to do anything sensational for people to love you. The outside things of life are not the really important things. It's our insides that make us who we are, that allow us to dream and wonder and feel for others. That's what's essential. That's what will always make the biggest difference in our world."

Dear Chris,
Congratulations! You've made us really proud!
Love,
Mom & Dad

Congratulations Courtney -- I couldn't be more proud of you.
Love Mom

We grow great by dreams. All be men are dreamers. They see things in the soft haze of a spring day or in the red fire of a long winter's evening. Some of us let these dreams die, but others nourish and protect them; nurse then through bad days till they bring them to the sunshine and light which comes always to those who hope that their dreams will come true. --Woodrow Wilson

Dear Rebecca,
Congratulations for yesterday's dreams, good luck for tomorrow's, and love always.
Mom and Dad

Congratulations

Love and good luck,

Mom, Dad, Dan & Jamie

Stupenda!

Complimenti!

Ole Arriba Arriba!

Congrats!

Ausgezeichnet!

Bonne Chance!

Dear Kristen,

You feel the coming of a new day
While knowledge gives thought to light a new way
Stop here for a while until the world,
The world calls you away
Yet you know that this is the place,
The place where you have grown and flourished.

Here in this enchanted place
You feel there's something calling you,
You will be wanting to return
To where the misty mountains rise and friendly fires burn
A place you can escape the world
Peace of mind and sanctuary by loud water's flow

You will travel for many miles
To see the smiles of friends,
Friends who will never leave your mind
When you are far away

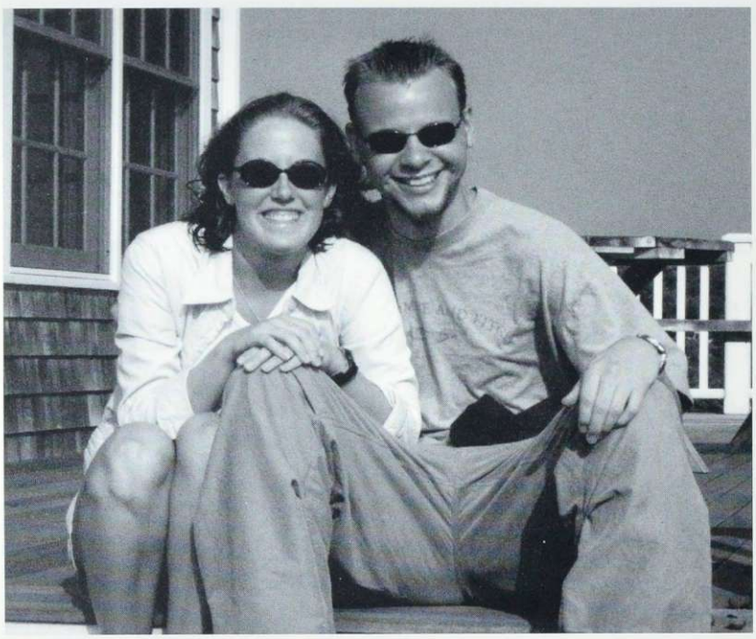
From the golden light of coming dawn
Till the twilight where the sun has gone
Treasure every season
And every passing day
Yet feel the coming and the dawn of a brand new day.
JRR Tolkien, The Fellowship of the Ring

We love you, Kristen
We are so proud of all that you have accomplished!
Congratulations! Love, Mom and Dad

Dear Ana Celia,

It seems that you started college yesterday and you already are a "Midd" graduate. We know you love the green mountain state, so do we. We cherish the good memories. Warmest congratulations and best wishes from Mom, Dad, Mary Ann, Jo-Anne and Tita Paz

Matt,

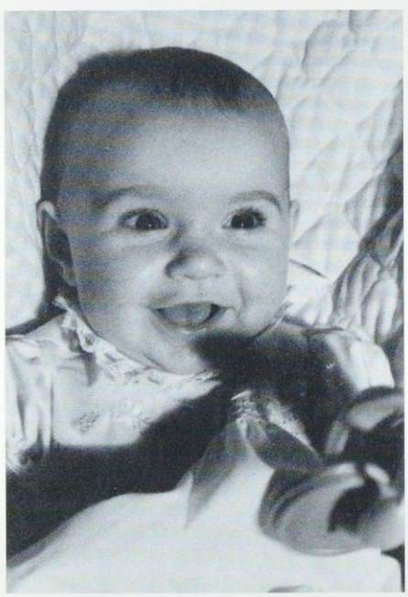


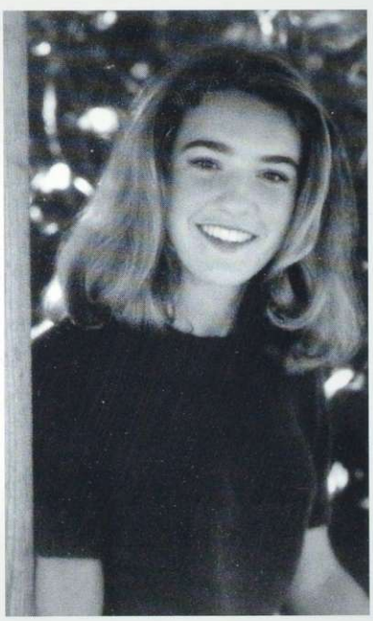
Matt and Leslie

SEEK your heart's desires.
RISE to the challenges.
CHERISH all those who love you.
CELEBRATE life's adventures.

With our endless love,
admiration and pride --
Congratulations!

Mom and Dad

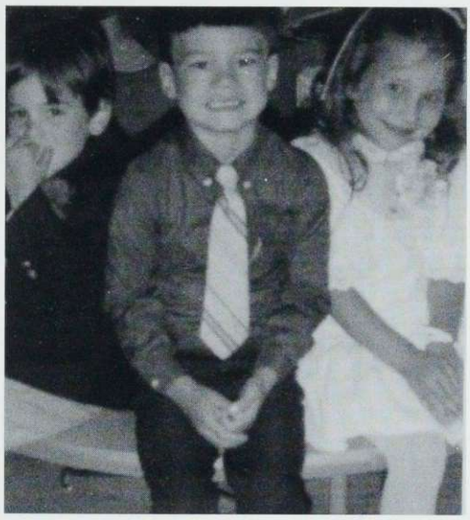


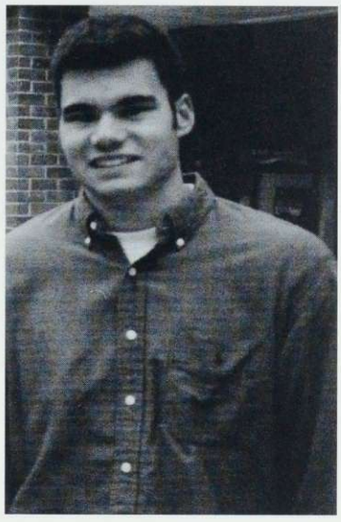


Jackie -- an amazing daughter, sister and friend -- your strong spirit and endless enthusiasm have brought great joy to our family. We are so proud of all you have accomplished and the woman you have become.

Congratulations and Love,
Mom, Dad and Sean

One of life's greatest rewards is to see your child take his place in the world, to feel the reach of his ambitions, to share the joy of his success.





Justin,

Congratulations...our love will always go with you.

Dad, Mom and Leslie

Sara,

The Journey has been fun-filled, exciting, and laden with love. We adore you and are so proud of everyone of your accomplishments. Thank you for your diligence, your wonder and concern for our world, your sense of what is right and just, your love for each of us.

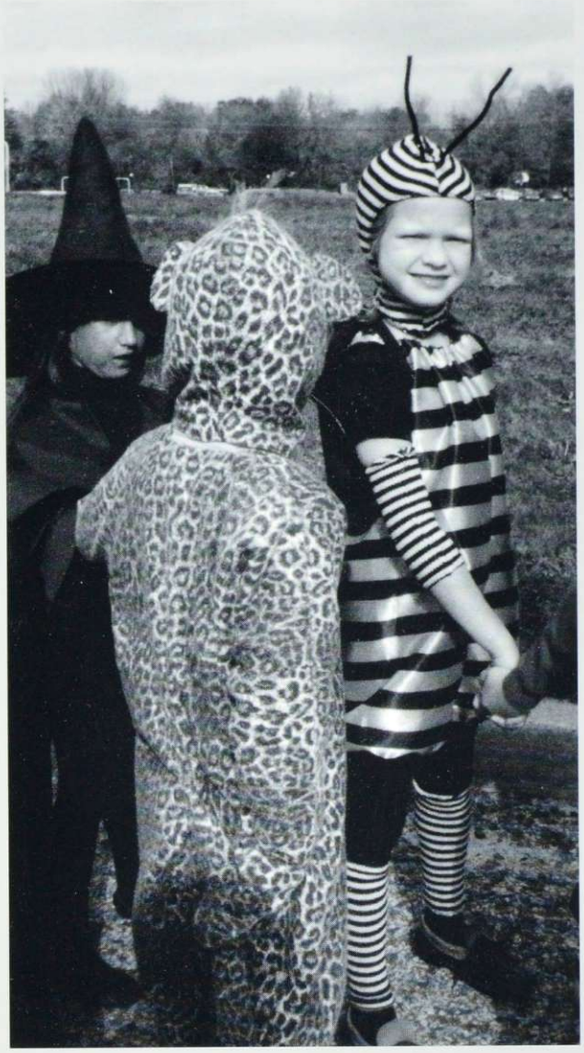
We love you and are so eager to be part of your continuing journey.

Mom, Dad, Ali and Linny

Jessie,

With Love and Admiration always

Emmies, Hillary,
Mom and Dad



To Our Beautiful Daughter, Melissa

May your life be filled with love and laughter

And may you have all the joy you can wish

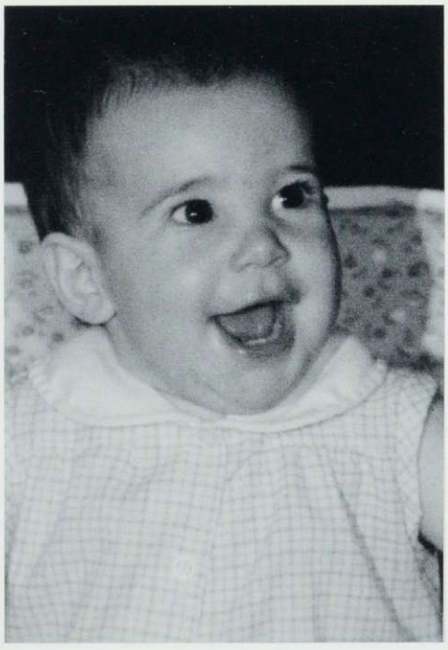
Congratulations and Love,
Mom and Dad

Maggie,

We live in deeds, not years; in thoughts, not breaths;
In feelings, not in figures on a dial.
We should count time by heart-throbs. He most lives
Who thinks most--feels the noblest--acts the best.

Philip James Bailey

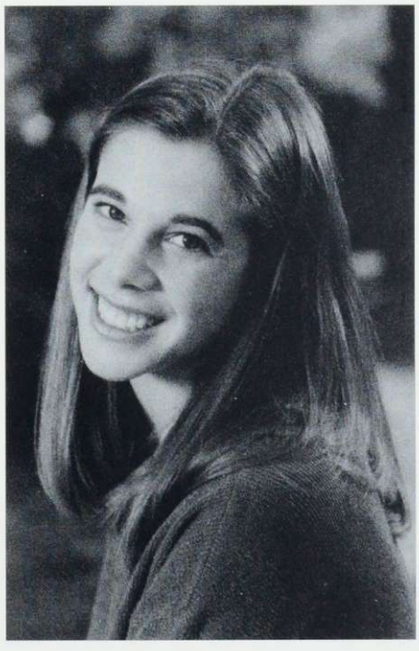
Mom and Dad



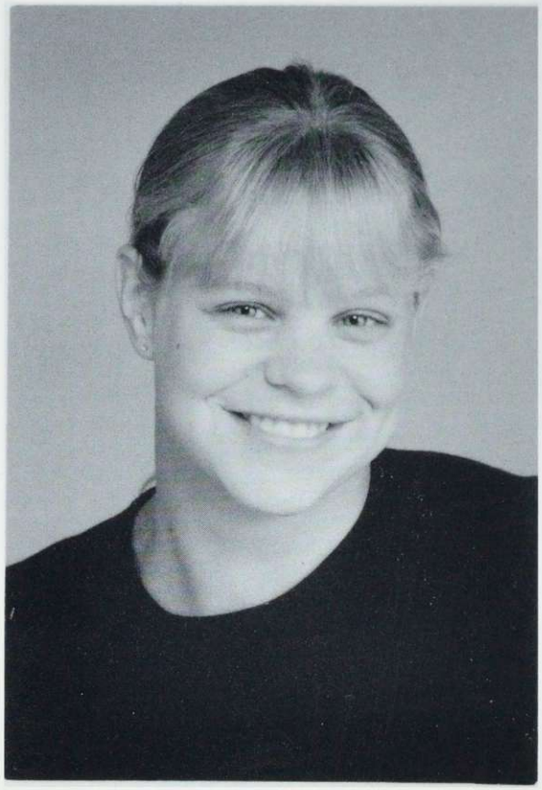
Lauren,

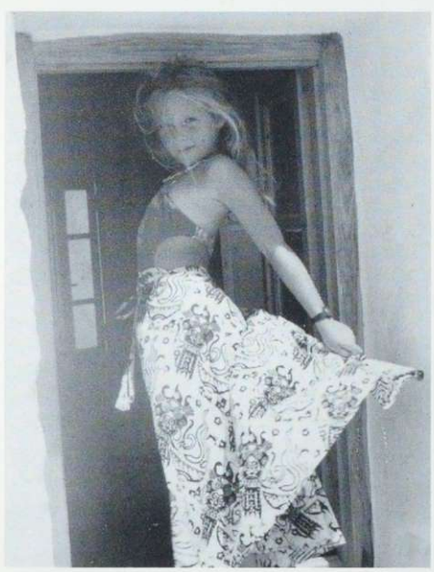
As you take your next steps into the world, know that our love goes with you always. We are so proud of you!

Congratulations and love,
Mom, Dad and Lindsay



Congratulations Erin, we're so proud of you!
Love, Mom, Dad and Joe





To this life of left illusions:

There isn't time to tell

Who are the players and performers,

In the parade of wishing well.

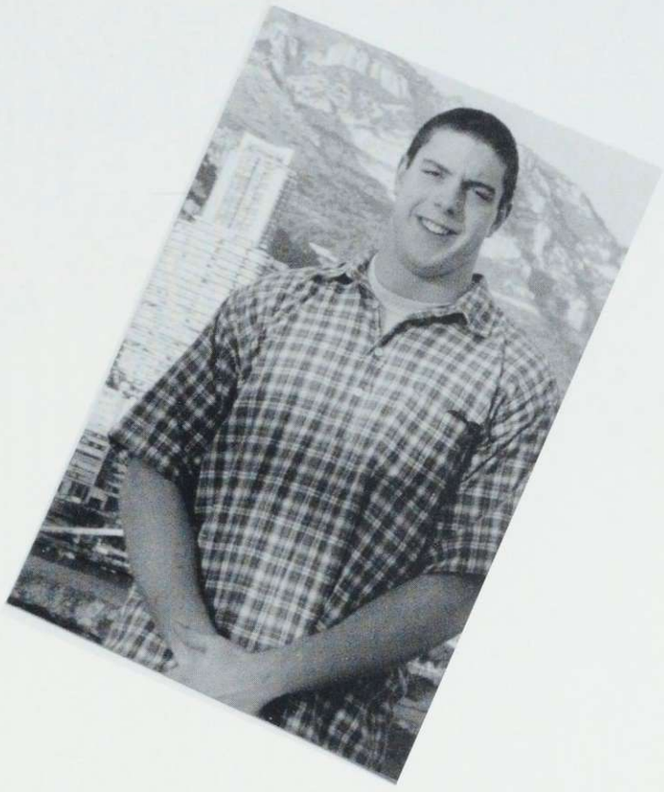
The beauty that you are,

The thing you will become,

Are players too you've taught to love

The dance that comes undone.

Maria, Doug & Nicolaas Bodkin



Sam,

Remember that our love and pride in your accomplishments are always with you.
Congratulations!

All our love,
Mom, Dad and Catherine

VIC (King Cone)

We are proud of your accomplishments
We share your enthusiasm in reaching another milestone
And yes, you have done extraordinarily well.

But...

The most important thing is not what you have done

But HOW you have done it.

We thank you for the "joy of life" you have instilled in us

May you continue to always be yourself, with lots of Good Humor

Love,
Mom, Dad, Liz and Kathy

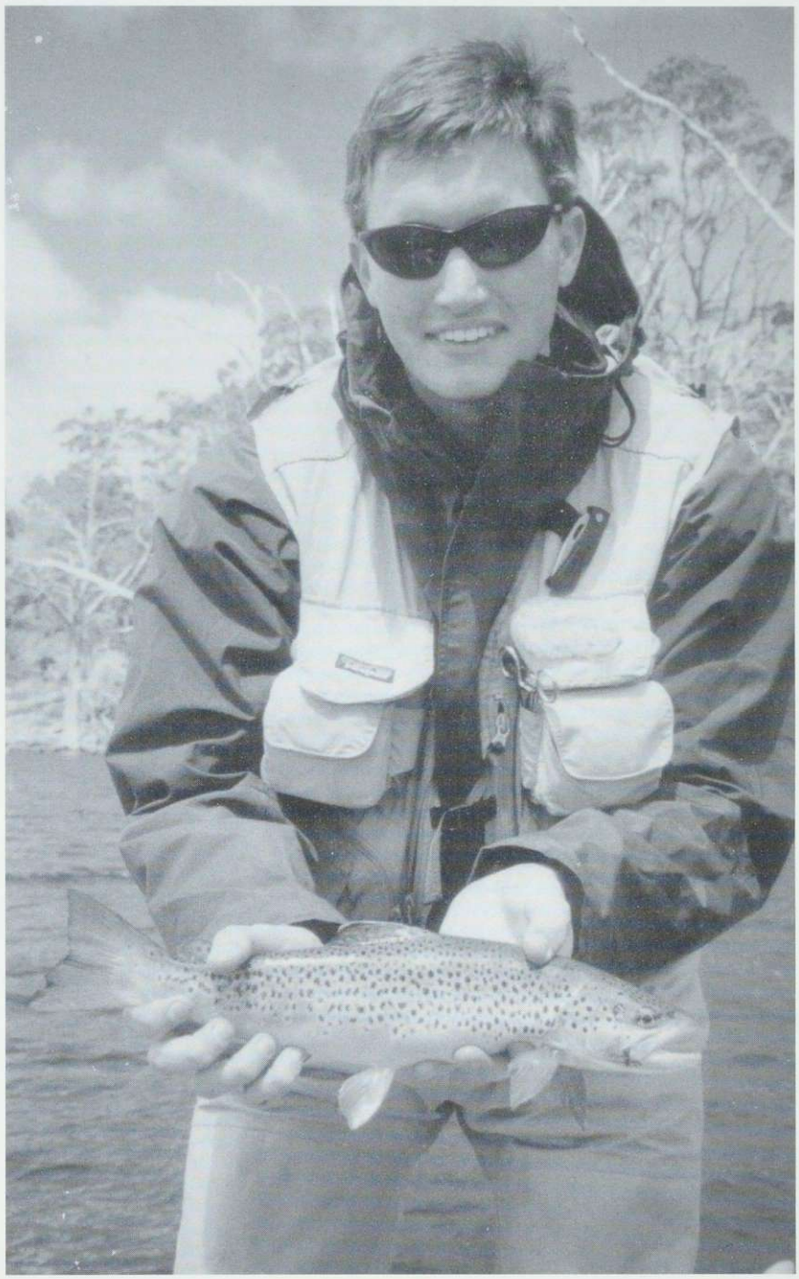
Emerson wrote: "Do your work, and I shall know you. Do your work, and you shall reinforce yourself..." McAndrew, you have made yourself known to us in so many ways. Thanks for setting such a noble example.

Love, NFR and ACR



"This is what Yahweh asks of you, only this:
To act justly
To love tenderly, and
To walk humbly with your God."

Micah 6:8

You will leave our home, but never our hearts.

Back when all we did was fight,
you never thought you would see the night
when I'd write a few lines of text telling you why you're the best.

But if I scour the Earth for all the sisters and Brothers,
I know there's no way I could find so great another.
You've followed in my footsteps and made me proud managing to always stand out from the crowd.

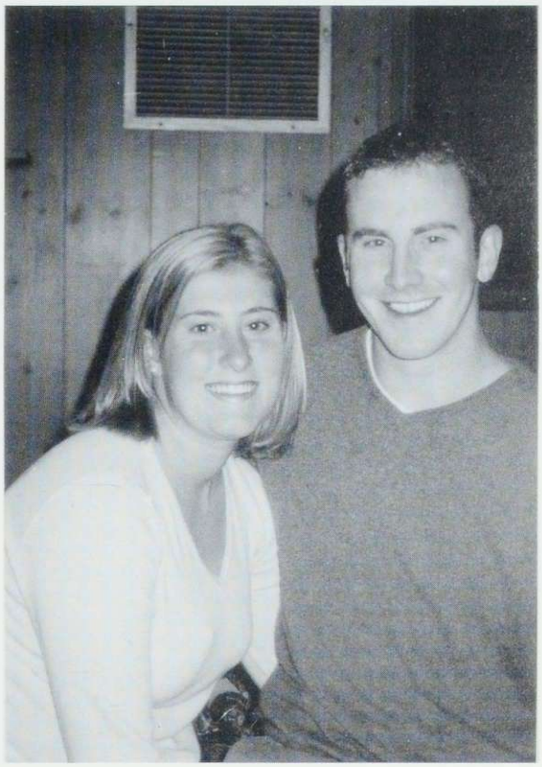
Although I don't always give you the praise you deserve,
your life has been nothing but amazing to observe.
As I sit back and try to remember some of the memories we've had together,
I look forward to the great ones we can look forward to, now and forever.



From Barn Meadow to Country Day,
you've managed to entertain me the whole way.
Whether away at Middlebury or visiting me at school,
the way we've gotten closer has been oh-so-cool!

And now as you embark on your career path,
I'll continue to do the math,
Adding up the accomplishments that you amass,
knowing I'll hear about it before even a day has passed.
Now it should be clear that I'm proud of you as could be,
but in case you've been sleeping I'll summarize in words totaling three...

Congratulations, Jessica McGillicuddy!

Love,
Ryan

The whole point of the process is for you to discover yourself, create your Self, as you truly are -- and as you truly wish to be.
